From 2025 Tbilisi State University, the Faculty of Social and Political Sciences with its partner universities will offer the new joint Master Program in Political Science – Integration and Governance (PoSIG)!

Within the framework of this program, Tbilisi State University becomes a member of a consortium, which includes 15 universities from different European countries. The partner universities of Tbilisi State University in the joint master's program are:

- University of Salzburg (PLUS)
- Ss. Cyril and Methodius University in Skopje (UKIM)
- European University of Tirana (UET)
- University of Tirana (UTIR)
- University of Business and Technology (UBT) - Pristina
- University of Sarajevo (UNSA)
- Sarajevo School of Science Technology (SSST)
- University of Trieste (UNITS)
- University of Prishtina (UP)
- University of Montenegro (UMO)
- University of Belgrade (UBG)
- Georgian Institute for Public Affairs (GIPA)
- Yerevan State University (YSU)
- Eurasia International University (EIU)

The English language MA program offers modules in all areas of Political Science:

- Comparative Politics
- European Integration
- International Relations Public
- Administration and Policy
- Political Theory

This 2 year course will target all international students who have completed their Bachelor's degree in Political Science and who have a certain level of methodology education.

Students will be free to choose some PoSIG partner universities who offer courses of the first program year and can choose another partner for the second-year program. They have to register at least at two different institutions, all attended universities give the Joint MA degree to the student. The joint degree is awarded by all universities attended by a student during the two-year study programme.

Joint Master Program in Political Science – Integration and Governance (PoSIG)! will be implemented by financial support of European commission, as the part of Capacity Building in Higher Education (CBHE) program.