

FRENCH INSTITUTE OF GEORGIA
NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION SHOTA RUSTAVELI

POSTDOCTORAL MOBILITY SCHOLARSHIP

2 000 €

+ Cost of airfare up to 500 €

Duration : 1 month

The scholarship is co-financed by the French Institute of Georgia and the National Science Foundation Shota Rustaveli, allowing two Georgian postdoctoral researchers to pursue their research in a French structure.

The goal is to encourage cooperation in scientific research between French and Georgian researchers and to support the mobility of young researchers.

All scientific fields are eligible. All postdoctoral researchers, up to 12 years after obtaining their PhD, are concerned. The best applications will be selected by a jury composed of French and Georgian researchers.
